

Designing an Icon – The Curragh Racecourse

Michael Orr MEng CEng MStructE - Principal Engineer | AECOM

The new Curragh Racecourse is an iconic venue on the historic Curragh plain. Michael Orr, of AECOM, will present the story and challenges behind the design and development of the razer-sharp cantilevering roof and supporting precast concrete grandstand, designed in coordination with Grimshaw & NMA Architects.

Michael Orr is a Principal Engineer who works as part of the Sports Structures team at AECOM. Since joining in 2014 he has worked on several Serpentine Pavilions along with a number of sports projects across the globe, most recently the Curragh Racecourse redevelopment near Dublin, Ireland and Al Wakrah Stadium, Qatar.
