Thurs 13 Feb. 2014

EWBI are delighted to invite you to our first annual National Conference. Come and join us this Engineers Week and learn about what we do and how you can get involved. Guest speakers Siobhan McGrath and Liam McCarton will share their experiences of working as Engineers in the International Development Sector. On the night we will launch our 2014 placements and hear from EWBI's first placement volunteer, Mark Kenny, about his experience working with the Busoga Trust in Uganda. Join us after for refreshments afterwards, where you will have the opportunity to connect with EWB members.

To attend this event free of charge register now by sending your name, and organisation to : conference@ewb-ireland.org
